

Best Spots for Burgers and Cocktails

ETHYL'S ALCOHOL & FOOD

The 70's are back! Ethyl's is proof that the 70's were a wild time in NYC and this late night spot is bringing back that NYC grit that has been washed away. With cocktails that are created for people would like to drink and have fun, there is something for everyone. Maybe you're in the mood for a Sleazy Mustache with mezcal or maybe my favorite, the Watermelon Felon with reposado, muddled watermelon, jalapeno, and lime. To soak up all the booze you'll need some grub and this place is home of the Fi-Dolla Burger. It's the best $5 you can spend! Add a topping for extra or be like me and make it a double for $9.99 and watch the pretty Go-Go girls shake their money-makers all night long.

Inside Tip: ask for a side of the chimichurri aioli for the fries
